Hurricanes

Aunt Jamie lives in Homestead, Florida. Jamie has lived in Florida all her life and is used to its weather. She is very energetic and likes outdoor activities. She was living there in 1992 when Hurricane Andrew hit the state. She had just returned from a vacation in the Everglades when she heard about a storm in the Atlantic Ocean. First, she followed the weather reports and then made preparations to leave as the storm drew near. Next she nailed boards across the windows of her house to try to prevent damage.

Hurricane Andrew turned out to be one of the most destructive hurricane sever to hit the United States. Seven inches of rain fell in Florida during that storm. The winds were more than 155 miles per hour.

When Jamie returned, she found that many trees had been uprooted in her neighborhood. One had fallen on the roof of her house. Jamie's house was damaged, but it was still standing. Many houses in Homestead were totally destroyed.

Read the passage. Then answer the questions that follow.

The Best Place to Shop and Be!

In an age where you can buy almost anything on the Internet, thousands of people all over the world still prefer to do their shopping in traditional places. In general, shoppers look for bargains, and the best prices are usually found in street markets. Many markets around the world have a similar lively atmosphere and sell nearly anything you can imagine from jewelry and clothes, fresh produce, spices, and fish, to carpets, electronics, and livestock. Riyadh has some of the world's most beautiful modern shopping malls, with designer boutiques and brand names. But if you're looking for real bargains, you'll head for some of the traditional souqs in town. Haraj is a secondhand market just east of the city. Impress your friends and dress in Chanel and Armani for a fraction of the price, or get that new kitchen appliance you've been dreaming of.
