From Questions (1) to (5), shade in the answer sheet the letter Ⓙ if the statement is True or Ⓛ if the statement is False, for every question.

Rosa Park saw a vacant seat in the middle of the bus and took it. The next stop was the Empire Theatre, and some whites got on. They filled up the white seats and one man was left standing. The driver looked back and noticed the man standing. Then he looked back at us. He said, ‘Let me have some front seats,’ because they were the front seats of the black section. Nobody moved. We sat just right where we were, the four of us.

The man in the window seat next to me stood up, and I moved to let him pass by me, and then I looked across the aisle and saw that the two women were standing. I moved over to the window seat. I could not see how standing up was going to ‘make it light for me’. The bus driver saw me still sitting there, and he asked was I going to stand up. I said, "No". He said, "I am going to have you arrested". Then I said, "You may do that". He got out of the bus and stayed outside for a few minutes, waiting for the police.

1) Rosa Park took a vacant seat.	T	F
2) The next stop was Compose Theatre.	T	F
3) The driver stayed outside the bus waiting for the white people	T	F
4) The pronoun "I" refers to Rosa Park in the passage	T	F
5) The antonym of " stand " is sit.	T	F

Comprehension: from Rosa Parks: My Story

When I got off from work that evening of December 1, I went to Court Square as usual to catch the Cleveland Avenue bus home. I didn't look to see who was driving when I got on, and by the time I recognized him, I had already paid my fare. It was the same driver who had put me off the bus back in 1943, twelve years earlier. He was still tall and heavy, with red, rough-looking skin. And he was still mean-looking.

From Questions below shade in the letter Ⓓ if the statement is True or Ⓕ if the statement is False, for every question.

1. The word recognized means 'to be able to identify again'.	T	F
2. The underlined pronoun ' I ' refers to Rosa Park.	T	F
3. This event occurred on the evening of December 7.	T	F
4. The driver was a short and good looking man.	T	F

Comprehension: from Rosa Parks: My Story

I thought back to the time when I used to sit up all night and didn't sleep, and my grandfather would have his gun right by the fireplace, or if he had his one-horse wagon going anywhere, he always had his gun in the back of the wagon. People always say that I didn't give up my seat because I was tired, but that isn't true. I was not tired physically, or no more tired than I usually was at the end of a working day. I was not old, although some people have an image of me as being old then. I was forty-two. No, the only tired I was, was tired of giving in.

From Questions below shade in the letter T if the statement is True or F if the statement is False, for every question.

Referring to Paragraph 1:

1) Rosa Park was twenty four at the time of this incident.	T	F
2) The underlined pronoun ' I ' refers to the driver?	T	F
3) She gave up her seat because she was tired.	T	F
4) Her grandfather would have his gun right by the fireplace.	T	F

"Let me have those front seats," because they were the front seats of the black section. Didn't anybody move. We just sat right where we were, the four of us. Then he spoke a second time: "Y'all better make it light on yourselves and let me have those seats."

The man in the window seat next to me stood up, and I moved to let him pass by me, and then I looked across the aisle and saw that the two women were also standing. I moved over to the window seat. I could not see how standing up was going to "make it light" for me. The more we gave in and complied, the worse they treated us.

From Questions below shade in the letter T if the statement is True or F if the statement is False, for every question.

Referring to Paragraph 1:

1) They were the front seats of the black section.	T	F
2) He refers to the driver.	T	F
3) The man in the window seat next to me sat down.	T	F
4) The meaning of ' complied ' is to adapt to another's wishes .	T	F

Paragraph 3

Preparing to Build a Stage Set

Let's set the stage. You are in your school's drama club, but you are not an actor or an actress. Your job is to build the stage set for the school's fall play. You have no experience? That's fine. Your drama teacher will guide you and the other members of the club through each part of the process. Your teacher has already designed the set and built a small model. Picture this model as a room with only three walls. If you were seated in the audience, you would see that the left wall has a window, the back wall has a door, and the right wall is solid. From this model, you will be able to begin planning. A good plan should take into account the time, supplies, tools, and people needed to complete the work.

Time is a critical element of any plan. Let's say that it is the third week of September and that the play will be performed in the second week of November. That means you have seven weeks to plan and build the stage set. Their need reduces the amount of time you have to five weeks. Now, let's say that the performers will need two weeks to rehearse on the actual set.

The next part of your plan involves figuring out what supplies you will need. You must make a list of the materials and tools necessary to build and decorate the set. For example, if the walls will be made out of large pieces of cardboard, you would add cardboard to your list, making sure to note the size of each wall. Similarly, if the door on the back wall opens, you would add a saw to your list. Then, you would add items to complete construction of the left and right walls. Finally, to complete your list, you would make note of any additional supplies and tools needed to decorate the set when it is built—paint, markers, stencils, paintbrushes, and drop cloths.
